

1. Which variable seems like it would be the best predictor of the response (Poverty)? How would you describe that relationship?
2. Rank the remaining variables in terms of how well you think they would predict the response.
3. Are there any strong relationships between the predictors? Describe a few of them.